SENATOR LODGE ARGUES

Principles Of International Law Relating To Armed Merchantmen Must Not Be Abandoned To Facilitate Death And Murder
By Submarines Is His Contention.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Senator Lodge, ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee made
a speech in the senate today declaring that abandonment by the United States at this time of the principle that its ports were open to all and its citizens free to travel upon merchantmen of belligerent nations armed solely for defensive purposes, would be an unneutral act and a step toward war. He said it would make the United States the ally of the belligerent whose merchant marine had been swept from the seas.

The senator spoke at length,
dwelling upon the history of international law relating to the arming
of merchantmen for defense and citing precedents in the record of the United States. He referred to reports that the administration was appearing to change its policy, which have been denied by Secretary Lansing, since the issuance of the Austrian and German memorandums announcing their intentions of treating armed merchant ships as war vessels, after Feb. 29.

As late as the president's note of
May 13, 1915, signed by Mr. Bryan, Senator Lodge said, this government
recognized that "American citizens
were within their undisputed rights
in taking their ships and in traveling wherever their legitimate business
calls them upon the high seas."
"Such," he added, "has been the practice of all nations in regard to the armed merchantmen. It seems utterly incredible that this position
should be in any way altered now
or that our government should be ready to surrender the unquestioned
rights of Americans to travel or ship goods on a belligerent merchantman subject to all the rules
which have been established by the courts and by all international authorities for at least two centuries."
The abandonment of those rights
by a neutral government on the ground that the invention of submarines with the necessary limitations
upon the powers of capture possessed by those boats is inconceivable. Such abandonment could only rest on the ground that the rights of neutrals,
the rules which for centuries have been agreed upon by all nations for the protection of innocent lives upon vessels, captured in war, must be thrown aside and discarded in order

BRASS WORKERS STRIKE, BUT NO DISORDER TODAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ansonia, Conn., Feb. 18.—Hundreds of the striking laborers of the American Brass company, gathered
near the mills at the opening hour
this morning but there was no disorder and no recurrence of the scenes which marked the walkout
yesterday of the greater number of 4500 men now on strike. Fifty special policemen sworn in by the mayor last night, were on duty to assist the regular force. Interest turned today to the conference with representatives of the strikers expected to have with the company officials when they are to make demands for wage increase. The American Brass company, through vice president, John A. Coe, manager at Waterbury, had already arranged
that a sliding scale of increase ap-proximating ten per cent throughout the shops of the company in the Naugatuck Valley had been granted.
This increase will affect 13,000 men
including those in the shops here.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER FINED FOR PRINTING
CARTOON OF SOLDIER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Feb. 18.—The proprietors of the weekly Journal Bystander were fined 100 pounds sterling, the former editor Vivian Carter, 50
pounds, and Lieutenant Bernard,
cartoonist, 50 pounds, today for publishing a cartoon depicting a British soldier lying intoxicated beneath a tree and clapping a bottle of rum
beneath the cartoon were the words
"reported missing."

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH IN ZEPPELIN

Gertrude Hale.

To be dashed to earth in a Zeppelin airship wreck, in which she had a most miraculous escape from death,
is the unique and unfortunate experience of Gertrude Hale, a prominent
New York concert singer. Miss Hale is a descendant of the Nathan Hale family, famous in American history.

JACOB DENIES HE USED HER PINK PAJAMAS

UPON REFUSING, AFTER PLEAD-ING ALL NIGHT WITH RICH
WIDOW

To Marry Him, As Testified to by Mrs. Canine in Bench of Promise Suit.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Canton, O., Feb. 18.—"I never slept in a pair of her pink pajamas," testified R. R. Jacob, wealthy Pittsburgh hardware dealer, on the stand today in the suit brought by Mrs. El-lin Canine, rich Indianapolis widow,
for $50,000 breach of promise.
That pajama story is false," he continued. He referred to Mrs. Canine's testimony that when he went to bed
at her home at daybreak the second day after he met her, she loaned him
a pair of her pajamas. He had spent the whole night trying to persuade
her to marry him, she said.
Jacob was on the stand all forenoon in rebuttal. He said that the last night he spent with Mrs. Canine in a Pittsburgh hotel before they finally separated in January, 1915,
she kept him awake all night pleading with him to agree to marry her.
It was expected that Mrs. Canine would be recalled to the stand in rebuttal when Jacob had finished.
Then arguments were to be begun
and the case was expected to go to the jury tonight, even if it were necessary to hold a night session of court.

MUSICIAN DEAD.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

liam H. Dana, head of Dana's musical institute and a musician of wide reputation, died here last night after a lingering illness.

Both Legs Cut Off by Train; Henry Delay Did Not Hear Whistle and Was Run Down

Henry Delay, 48, Friday was in a serious condition at the City Hospital, the result of injuries suffered early Thursday evening when he was run down by a westbound Pennsylvania passenger train. The accident occurred near Vine street.
Delay lives in Boylston avenue and is an employee of the W. H. Weakley jewelry store in South Park Place.

Crisp Brothers ambulance hurried the injured man to the City Hospital where it was found necessary to amputate both legs, one above and the other below the knee.
Dr. Homer J. Davis performed the operation, assisted by Dr. John P.
Jarbottle.

Mr. Delay was returning to his home from work and was walking
east on the westbound main track.
An east bound freight train was passing at the time and he did not hear the whistle of the passenger train. When the train was about a hundred yards from him, Delay said
he thought the headlight was a lantern and did not step from the tracks. The train was upon him before he was aware that it was an engine and then too late to leap to safety. He was hurled about fifty

STORMING

Of Supposed Impregnable
Fortress by Russian Soldiers

IN WEATHER AWAY
BELOW ZERO

And Its Final Capture By Bayonet Charge

APPEARS UNPRECEDENTED

Turkish Army Defending Erzerum Taken By Surprise At The Tactics Of Its Opponents, Scattered
In All Directions—Official
Lists Of Prisoners Still Is Lacking.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Petrograd, Feb. 18.—(Via London).—The fall of Erzerum, the most important Turkish stronghold
in Asia Minor, and for a long time considered impregnable, offers the unprecedented spectacle of a first-class fortress built on a steep mountain ridge nearly a mile above sea level, yielding to bayonet attacks
after only 36 hours bombardment.
The operations were conducted
under the most severe weather conditions, the snow being deep, and the thermometer registering at times
more than 70 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

The Turkish army defending Erzerum, taken by surprise under the methods adopted by the Russians, is now said to be in disorderly flight on the roads leading to Sivas. As the garrison apparently scattered in all directions it is assumed here that large numbers of men were taken prisoners, although official figures are still lacking.
After the taking of Niskala it appeared that the Russian attack
would be directed upon the Turkish right flank and by rapidly transferring troops the Turks made all plans to resist the main assault from this quarter. Apparently they had little fear of the success of this attack because of the strong character
of the fortifications in that direction
and even less apprehension of danger from a frontal attack.

Nevertheless after the Russians began in taking by storm the first line forts on February 2, there began a persistent bombardment of the Turkish center, followed by a bayonet charge, the impetuosity of which swept the defenders off their feet. The highest tribute is paid to the bravery of the Caucasian troops whose charge is considered likely to go down in history as one of the most brilliant feats of the war.

It is recognized here that the success of the assault was due almost entirely to the bayonet work of these troops, since the artillery preparation was insufficient in intensity and duration, according to military experts, to reduce even a strong field position.

correspondent says that many eastern tribes of the British authorities.
Owing to a violent dispute between western and eastern tribes, which are hereditary enemies. Both joined in the recent fighting against the British, in which the eastern tribes

the conflict among the tribes
arose and the easterners are now
flocking to the Egyptian refugee camps.

NEW YORK SOCIETY WOMEN WEAR STRIKING GOWNS AT BALL

Miss Angelica Brown (left) and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, as they appeared at the "Ball of the Gods."

Two of the most striking costumes seen at the "Ball of the Gods," the greatest social event in years in New York, were those worn by Miss Angelica Brown and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas. Miss Brown's costume, which received the most praise, was a marvelous creation of heavily embroidered velour, so arranged that when she raised her arms it appeared as if she had wings.

Former Priest Electrocuted for Brutal Murder of Woman Whose Headless Body He Dismembered

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Hans
Schmidt, was electrocuted at Sing
Sing prison today for the murder of Anna Aumuller, September 2, 1911.
Schmidt went quietly to the death
chamber, accompanied by the principal keeper and the Rev. Father Cash-in, the prison chaplain.

Leaving the death house he said
good-bye to those who remained.
When he entered the chamber, the guards attempted to direct him toward the chair, but Schmidt gently shook them off and insisted upon addressing the seventeen witnesses gathered there. He said that he and with Father Cashin standing at one side and the keeper at
the other, Schmidt said:
"Gentlemen, I ask forgiveness of all those I have injured or scandalized. I forgive all who have injured me. My last wish is to say goodbye to my dear old mother!"
Schmidt then seated himself in the electric chair and the current was applied three times. Within a minute he was dead. He had spent the night up to midnight in praying and talking with Father Cashin and slept from midnight to five o'clock
when he was awakened for breakfast. He would take only a cup of coffee.

FEARFUL CRIME.

For Which Schmidt Paid the Extreme Penalty This Morning.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 18.—When the torso of Anna Aumuller's body was washed up on the New Jersey shore of the Hudson river there started a search which has had but few parallels in the annals of New York crime.
There was but one faint clue, a pillow slip on which was embroidered
in hundreds of homes or stores. There was not even a laundry mark to aid
the police. With this slender clue, Inspector Faurot took personal
charge of the case and on September 14, 1913, 12 days after the murder, Hans Schmidt, an assistant priest, at an uptown church, was arrested charged with the crime. An hour before the arrest the inspector
had broken in to a flat and found a long bladed butcher's knife and other evidence that the murder had been committed there. Schmidt confessed and his sole defense was that it was a "blood sacrifice" murder.
The body had been dismembered
and presumably all of it was thrown into the river, although the head

never was found. Schmidt was twice placed on trial, the first jury, in December, 1913, failing to reach a verdict. In February, 1914, he was found guilty.

Besides the sordid story of Anna
Aumuller's infatuation for Schmidt,
the trials revealed, that his was a career of crime. He was engaged in a counterfeiting scheme at the time
the murder was committed it developed, and "Dr." A. Muret who posed as a dentist, was sent to prison for seven years as Schmidt's accomplice
in the latter scheme. It was found that Schmidt also had posed as a physician, that he had committed forgery on numerous occasions and that he had been guilty of various other schemes of fraud. His attorneys pleaded their client was insane.
The slayer, however, always contended that he was sane. He took no active part in his own defense. When he was sentenced he thanked the court and expressed a desire to be executed at once. He maintained
the same stolid composure throughout all the various stages of his case.

TAKING STRIKE VOTE.
Cleveland, O., Feb. 18.—Two hundred motormen and conductors of the Cleveland, Southwestern and Columbus railroad were taking a strike vote today. Indications point to an affirmative result. If the men go out lines from this city to Elyria, Wooster and Columbus will be affected.

DIVIDEND DELAYED.
Findlay, O., Feb. 18.—The directors of the Ohio Oil Co. today declared the regular quarterly dividend
of $1.25 a share and an extra dividend of $4.75 on its $15,000,000 capital. The dividend is payable March 20.

Suspected Poisoner Boasts Of Eluding Arrest In Letter That Stimulates The Police

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 18.—Believing that Jean Crones, the Chicago chef accused of poisoning the soup at a dinner of Catholic clergymen and laymen in that city in New York City, or nearby, the police made
every effort today to run him down.
The authorities think Crones is the author of two letters mailed in this city to the Times in which the writer boasts that he has escaped
arrest and makes veiled threats.
The identification by John M. Mc-
Court, assistant United States district attorney at Scranton, Pa., of the far simile of the first. Crones letter received here as the handwriting of the man wanted in Chicago, stimulated police efforts.
Crones' writing was identified by examination papers he had sent to a correspondence school at Scranton.
The second letter, apparently signed by Crones, received by the New York paper last night, contained what purported to be his finger prints. The police are endeavoring to learn by these prints
whether Crones had a record in the police identification bureau.

In this letter the writer attempted to tell in an incoherent manner
"why I did it." Many of the words are misspelled as was the case in the previous letter. The writer asserted that "while at Europe millions of Christians are slaughtering
each other in the most bloody massacre and in these free country
thousands of men and women are beating the streets without time
and shelter, at the very same time
the church holds dinners which start with Beluga caviar and champagne, the same money which was hard from poor workmen and women, the same money were the blood of poor workers has run for."
"These conditions," the writer continued, "are an scandal. That is the failure of Christianity and an insult toward honesty and a challenge to humanity. Let the church answer these my charges toward the world and I shall stand for the charges made against me."

CONTROL OF SISAL CROP

Through The Revolutionary Party Alleged To Have Been Company's Aim But
The Revolt Was Quickly
Put Down In 1915 By Soldiers And Followers Of General Carranza.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Charges that the International Harvester company, had furnished money for arms and ammunition for the Ortez-Arguedo revolution against the Carranza government in Yucatan,
Mexico, were made today by Levy
Mayer of Chicago, in the senate agricultural committee's investigation
into an alleged monopoly for control
of the sisal market.

Walter L. Fisher, former secretary of the interior, counsel for the Harvester company, displayed to the committee a bundle of bills, part of 3,500,000 pesos issued by the Yucatan commission, formed for controlling the sisal crop. He was undertaking to explain that the bills had come into the possession of the Harvester company for a draft for $480,000 gold issued to Angelino Montes, a sisal purchaser
who the Yucatan planters assert represented solely the Harvester
Co., when he was interrupted by Mayer, who declared they gave the draft to raise money for stirring up
a revolution.

"That's just talk," retorted Mr.
Fisher.
"We will be able to show and introduce into the record the twisted
and bills showing that at least part of the money went to an arms purchasing company of New York to buy rifles and ammunition," replied Mayer.

Mr. Fisher asserted the money from the draft was given the Yucatan government in exchange for the commission's money in order to have currency to pay the sisal planters.
The Ortez-Arguedo government had control of Yucatan for a short time in 1915 and was overcome by the Carranza army.

PROMINENT LODGE MAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, Feb. 18.—Thomas T. Taylor, 60, until a month ago superintendent of streets of this city, died
at his home early this morning. Mr.
Taylor had been active in Republican county and state politics for years.
He was the supreme grand master of the Grand Order of the U. S. S. post noble grand of Wapakoneta lodge, I.

ARRANGING FOR TAKING CARE OF MORE REFUGEES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New Orleans, Feb. 18.—Preparations for taking care of hundreds of additional refugees, made homeless
by the flood waters still pouring
through the Buck Ridge crevasse,
were being made today at Natchez,
Miss., and Vidalia, La. Rescue boats are expected at Natchez today.

Flood waters were today threatening several thousand head of cattle, mules and horses corralled on Sicily Island, near St. Joseph. Many isolated small groups of refugees in the vicinity of Newellton have been concentrated at Central Pointe.
Next to food, boats are said to be most needed in the flooded areas.

BIRTH RATE IS DECLINING IN THE GERMAN EMPIRE

(ASSOC. (ED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, Feb. 18.—(Via London.)
—The declining birth rate in Germany which was attracting attention before the war, is receiving more serious consideration at the present time, in view of the losses
sustained in the field of the masses.
This subject was brought up today in the budget committee of the Prussian diet. A representative of the ministry predicted that unless a radical change should be made Germany would soon be in the position of France, with deaths exceeding births. The speaker also referred to the high rate of infant mortality.

PLAYED BY THE AMERICAN INDIANS AS A WELL-SPECIALIZED GAME.

Sometimes Took Days to Get a Goal—False Idea as to Measurements of Baseball Diamond.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Feb. 17.—Although a form of football was played by both the Greeks and Romans under the title of Phenidia and later Sphorokania, it has been recently demonstrated that the North American Indians invented and played a game similar to the football of early and middle age Europe. In a recent article upon the subject, Parke Davis, the statistician and historian of the modern game, writes as follows:

"The first American played football in a well specialized game, of which he was also the inventor. Like Lacrosse, the Indian played his game of football upon the flat sands. The ball was made of leather, sewn with a thong and filled with moss. The goals were a mile and more apart. The players ordinarily were braves of the same tribe, but upon special occasions the game would be waged between selected players of different tribes, one tribe being arrayed against another.

"In these tribal contests the players came to the sand, and full savage regalia. As the time drew near for the game to begin, bows, quivers, shields and bonnets were discarded, and the Indians, lithe and athletic, stood forth easier and alert. Before commencing play the rival players shook hands and rubbed noses in a formal token of the friendliness of the fierce encounter.

"Our genial reporters of three centuries ago tell us that sometimes several days are required to obtain a goal, in which event the contending teams would mark the spot where the ball lay at sundown and resume the game at that point the following day. And there was fair sportsmanship in their game, for William Strachey, comparing the tactics of the Indians to the tactics of Englishmen, and clearly referring to tripping and hacking, says: 'They never strike one another's heels, as we do, nor accomplish their purpose by purchase a goal by such an advantage.' They played for stakes, did these Indians, so high that William Wood is afraid to tell the size. On this subject he says: 'It would exceed the belief of many to relate the worth of one goal, wherefore it shall be nameless.'

The erroneous idea of the distance between the home plate and first base or between any of the other 'sacks' and that which separates third base from the home plate seems to prevail not alone among fans who generally accept the measurement as 90 feet but also by some ground keepers. This error caused Secretary Heydler, of the National League, a short time ago to issue an order calling for the reconstruction, on account of faulty measurement, of some of the League's playing diamonds. Under the rules laid down for a diamond's construction the various distances are as follows:

Home plate to first base 87 feet 9 inches; first to second base 88 feet 1 1/2 inches; second to third base 89 feet 1 1/2 inches and from third to the home plate 87 feet 9 inches. The home plate, or rather the front of it, should be exactly 37 feet 1 inch from the pitcher's box as the official measurement from the intersection lines which meet at the back of the plate should be 60 feet 6 inches. As the plate measures 17 inches through from back to front it will be seen that the forward point of it should be located exactly 59 feet and 1 inch from the pitcher's box.

Chinese athletes competing in American intercollegiate contests are likely to be features of the coming indoor season. Michigan, Case School, Cleveland, and Brown all have Chinese trying for places on the track and field squad. Several have made excellent records in Far Eastern meets.

The Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. is considering the feasibility of purchasing an indoor running track consisting of rubber mats. The sections are cut in such form as to permit the laying of a surface of varying length. Such a surface would permit the use of spiked shoes and materially improve the time of all foot races both sprints and distance runs. It can be laid and removed in a few minutes.

TO RECEDE

that a new instrument of maritime destruction must not be impeded in its work of death and murder. Such a doctrine is revolting to every instinct of humanity, to every principle of law and justice.

"There is, however, another side to this matter, which is of even greater importance. There can be no question that any act by any neutral which alters conditions created by the war is an unneutral act, and places the neutral upon the side of one belligerent or the other.

"This is eminently true of any form of embargo, and there is no need that I should repeat the unanswerable argument on this point embodied by Mr. Lansing in his note of last August to the government of Austria-Hungary. The war and the embargo have also created conditions under which any change at this time in the attitude which took officially at the outset of the war in regard to armed merchantmen, would be an unneutral act.

"I cannot believe that the administration thinks for a moment of altering the well defined position which it took at the outset of the European war and I believe that it must stand as firmly on this question as it has on the question of the embargo. Should it act otherwise it would accept a humiliation and incur a danger of war from which even

Spirited Bidding for Bonds; Good Price Is Offered

Sidney Spitzer & Co. of Toledo, bond buyers, were successful bidders today for two bond issues totaling $88,300. The bond issues were divided into two issues, one for $75,300 for bonds for street improvements and $13,000 for the city's portion of the resurfacing of Hudson avenue and $1,060.80 for the city portion bonds.

City Auditor Dodd and Messrs. Adams, Keyes and Stasel of the council financial committee, besides a dozen or more agents of the bond companies, were present at the opening of bids. In the following list of bidders, the first sum given is the premium on the assessment bonds and the second the premium on the Hudson avenue bonds:

On the boldest and the most unscrupulous would shrink."

Senator Sterling of South Dakota, spoke on his resolution to declare the senate's concern at the recent German naval order to sink all armed allied merchant ships. He said the issue brought the United States to its "greatest international crisis."

"Instead of yielding to the claims of the German admiralty," said he, "their very mention should meet with vigorous protests. Instead of denying this old right of the seas, we should now at all times, we win her or any other nation in seeking to uphold it. It is possible some dangers might be incurred, but I do not fear dangers will be increased beyond what they are at present. But I do know that let another sea horror occur in which American lives are involved and in which administration and the world will know that there is a real America, not supine, apathetic and hesitating, but strong, militant, it need be and ready to respond to those noble impulses of liberty and humanity which have been our heritage since the beginning of time."

"For peace commissioners, for delegates to The Hague, conventions, for international jurists, there will be a new problem and a new cause and that will be to limit the hostile operations, at least the destructive operations of the submarine to war craft, be it dreadnaught, cruiser, torpedo boat or strictly auxiliary, and to prohibit forever the destruction of commerce and passenger carrying vessels by means and at risks that shock humanity and shame our civilization."

Discussing the right of Great Britain to arm her merchant fleet for defense purposes Senator Sterling said:

"Of all the peoples in the world it ill becomes us to deny Great Britain that right now or to spend one hour in diplomatic haggling to secure her renunciation of it. Our export trade has been growing by leaps and bounds. Each month has been exceeding by many millions, the preceding month. The manufacturers of arms and munitions of war are not the only beneficiaries, but the products of the farm, the forest, the mine, find a foreign demand, and market never in the aggregate equalled. But with our own poor and inadequate merchant marine how would it have been were she not mistress of the seas."

Senator Sterling also said that it "is not a remote inference that the present attitude of the German admiralty in regard to the right to attack and destroy armed merchantmen without warning was encouraged, if not invited by the memorandum of our state department to the entente powers."

The ball is to be held in Madison Square Garden and Governor Whitman, high city officials and many dignitaries of the Catholic church are expected to be present.

Detectives have been ordered to watch every section of the auditorium and another large detail will patrol the environs of the garden.

The police have been spurred to renewed activity by the definite establishment of the fact that two letters received by the New York Times and purporting to have been written by Crouses, were mailed in New York.

The second letter, which was received by the Times last night and published this morning conveyed a threat that a new outrage was planned in this city.

CABINET

DISCUSSED LUSITANIA CASE AND THE GERMAN SUBMARINE SITUATION

Austria Will be Notified With Germany of Assurances Asked for by United States.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 18.—A long dispatch from Ambassador Von Bernstorff was on its way to Berlin today explaining that in its negotiations with Germany over submarine warfare the United States will accept nothing short of a complete agreement covering all points for which it has contended as to assurance that the warfare in the future will be conducted in accordance with the established principles of international law.

It is understood the ambassador informed his government that the United States considers Germany's declaration of its intention to sink armed merchant ships without warning after February 29, inconsistent with assurances given in the Arabic case. It was said he told the Berlin foreign office the German declaration regarding armed merchant ships modified, and that the tentative communication designed to end the Lusitania case will not be accepted formally by this country until assurances regarding the future conduct of German submarine warfare is given.

The submarine situation with its new developments was discussed at today's cabinet meeting. Secretary Lansing went to the White House before the cabinet assembled and discussed the question with the president also at some length.

It was indicated today that Austria, too, will be notified of the assurance which the United States is asking for the future so that the position of this government may be fully and uniformly known to the Germanic allies.

A Cave of Vnrest.

Undoubtedly for everything there is an ample cause. Far be it from the likes of me to knock on nature's laws. But why do modern architects assume that U is V and carve in stone that palpable and bold absurdity? The language used to be so poor, so terribly in debt, that it could not afford a U to grace the alphabet.

But now that we possess the U with soft and graceful curve, of unexcelled docility and willingness to serve, why do they carve United States and public school and such and make the English language look as funny as the Dutch, with restaurant and Pullman car and university and other marks of educational perversity?

That V impresses some of us as cheap and gaudy bluff, which parveys may still in place of more substantial stuff, but people who are fashioned out of vnpreferections dvt view all such affection with an unswerving disgust. Such exhibitions always make me very givm and blve. Now, honest In-jyn, don't they have the same effect on you?—Printer's Ink.

Hospitality in Greece.

Hospitality as understood in the west is not characteristic of the Greeks, who in their own country rarely invite friends to their tables. In her "Greece of the Hellenes" Miss Lucy Garnets relates how on one occasion she and a friend were invited into the suburbs of Greece by a Grecian lady who was giving a birthday tea to her young son and his playmates. "My share of the entertainment," says Miss Garnets, "consisted in watching the little lions feed, for neither a cup of tea nor a slice of the birthday cake came my way or the way of my companion, whose hospitality the hostess herself frequently enjoyed." This apparent ingenuity is, of course, entirely due to the custom of the country. The writer adds that the same hostess on coming to England entertained like the average Briton.—London Chronicle.

The First Bomb.

The bomb came into being during the troublous times in France toward the close of the eighteenth century. Its inventor was a French fanatic named Chevalier, who had conceived such an intense hatred of Napoleon that he determined to kill him.

Being employed at a government small arms factory, he had gained some knowledge of explosives, and with this knowledge he managed to construct a bomb out of a barrel, which he filled with a mixture of powder, bullets, broken glass and white arsenic.

Chevalier's idea was for the bomb to explode under Napoleon's carriage as it passed through the streets of Paris. A miscalculation, however, caused it to go off a few seconds too soon.

Had Chevalier succeeded in his object the whole history of Europe would of course have been changed.—Pearson's Weekly.

Getting Into a Scrape.

Many years ago the wild deer that roamed through the forests of England used to dig holes in the earth with their forefeet. They pawed it out sometimes to the depth of several inches, sometimes a foot or more. These holes were called "scrapes," and travelers at dusk or night or those who were careless about their footing often tumbled into them. They were laughed at for their heedlessness when they came home covered with mud, and as this frequently occurred after they had been imbibing a bit they were said to have "got into a scrape." Some Cambridge students took up this expression, and thus it came to be applied to people who had got into difficulties of various sorts.

MR. J. R. SWICK TRIED TANLAC AND IS SATISFIED

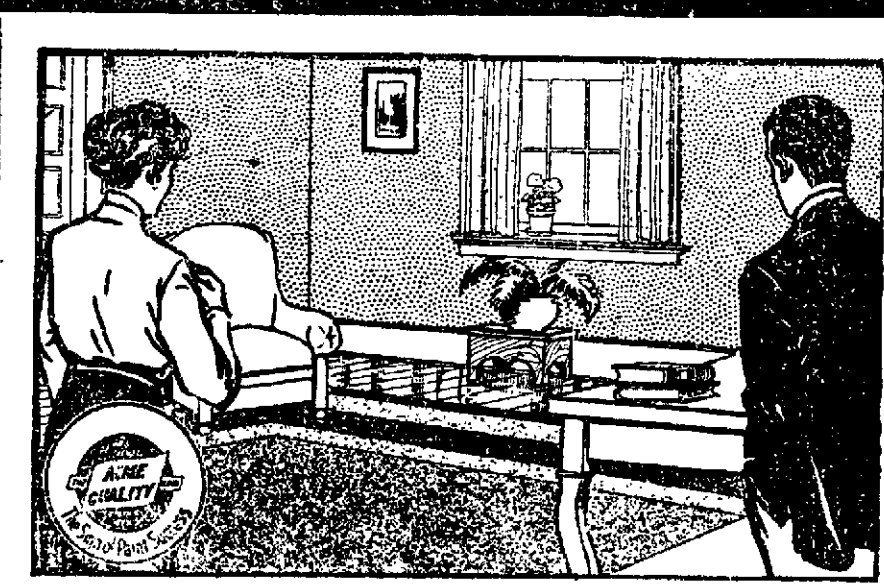

On His Third Bottle and Rheumatism Better and General Health Much Improved.

He Regards It Not Only As Fine In Rheumatism But a Tonic of Superior Merit.

Mr. J. R. Swick, of Thornville, in the Buckeye Lake vicinity, in Perry county, a prominent and well known stockman and farmer, is one of the many who has tried and is grateful for the relief he has received by taking the Master Medicine, Tanlac. Mr. Swick a few days ago called at Hall's drug store for the third bottle of the Master Medicine, and when asked what effect, if any, it had on him, said: "It has had a good effect. I took it principally for rheumatism in my knees, hips, etc., and it has been a decided benefit to me in that particular, and also in others. It has made me feel better generally; has built me up and made me sleep better, eat better, etc. I regard it as not only a splendid preparation for rheumatism, but an excellent tonic and blood purifier."

Tanlac also is good for catarrh, stomach, liver and kidney troubles, the after effects of la grippe and pneumonia, and the best nerve tonic and "old folks" up-builder on the market. Tanlac is being demonstrated at Hall's drug store, and is for sale at Granville by W. P. Ullman, at Pataskala by J. R. Strine, at Utica by P. H. Richardson, at Coshocton by Page & Lorenz and at Ashville by D. H. Squire & Son.

George W. McNealy vs. the City of Newark is the title of a suit filed in common pleas court today. SOCIETY LEADER OF ENGLAND, ONCE U. S. GIRL, IS A MOTHER

George W. McNealy vs. the City of Newark is the title of a suit filed in common pleas court today. The petition alleges that the city in constructing a reservoir for the water works about nine years ago built an embankment along one side of the same on which a switch to haul coal cars to the power house was to have been built and that it has interfered with the natural drainage of plaintiff's lands, and that from three to four feet of water have covered the same continuously for a number of years, to his damage in the sum of $300.

SAYS DRINK LEMONADE FOR RHEUMATISM

Relief from rheumatism and sciatica can be obtained by drinking lemonade and avoiding alcoholic drinks.

To get rid of this stubborn disease, however, to stop the twinges, pain and swelling, and drive the poisonous accumulations from the joints and muscles, all generously inclined druggists will tell you to take half a teaspoonful of Rheuma daily until all misery ceases.

Rheuma is a powerful remedy, because only a powerful remedy can overcome such a terrible disease; but Rheuma acts speedily—the first dose taken and you'll know that you will soon be your healthy, happy self again. T. J. Evans and all druggists know what Rheuma will do, for they sell a great deal of it and guarantee that two 50-cent bottles will overcome rheumatic agony or money back.

AGUINALDO ASKS FOR THE PARDON OF AMERICAN LAWYER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Manila, Philippines, Feb. 18.—Emilio Aguinaldo, the former insurgent leader, has headed a petition for the pardon of the American lawyer Kelly, who was disbarred, fined $500 and sentenced to six months' imprisonment for publication of a book alleging that General Noriel, the insurgent leader, who was put to death last year for murder of a political enemy, was innocent. Kelly accused sixty persons, including high officials and supreme court justices of assassinating Noriel in connection with the execution of Noriel and his two accomplices. It is not regarded as likely that the petition will be granted.

STEAM SHOVEL BRINGS UP A STRANGE OBJECT

Frank Beagle of Thornville, brought to the Advocate office yesterday a geological specimen which has attracted considerable attention and caused much discussion among those who have seen it. It has the appearance of a petrified section of the teeth and jawbone of some prehistoric animal. The formation of the teeth is distinct, even the cupings on the wearing surface being apparent. If it is not a portion of prehistoric animal, it is certainly a peculiar freak of nature.

ETNA BACHELOR FOUND DEAD BY HIS NEIGHBORS

Etna, Feb. 18.—William Rhoades, 67 years old, was found dead late Monday afternoon at his home here when neighbors alarmed by his failure to appear for several days, broke into his home. The body was lying in the kitchen, the head against the door, which prevented any access to the house. He was last seen a week ago today, and it is believed his death occurred late that afternoon. The body was buried here Wednesday.

HIS FAITH NEEDED ENCOURAGEMENT

But W. E. Bailey of Newark Soon Became Nerv-Worth Believer.

Here is a local endorsement that no victim of disordered nerves should miss:

"I must say, at first hearing of Nerv-Worth, I did not have any faith in it, as other things had failed, so I felt the same way about Nerv-Worth, but was finally persuaded to try a bottle. I tried it and am thankful to say have received most wonderful results."

"My trouble was extreme nervousness and sleeplessness. Before this trouble came on I had severe attacks of sick headache. At night I could not sleep and would have to get up and walk around to obtain relief. Also troubled with a quivering sensation in the legs and it often got so bad that I would have to keep my legs around and I could not sit down with any ease whatever."

The second bottle of Nerv-Worth did certainly convince me that Nerv-Worth was the medicine for my trouble, as the results have been most wonderful, I sleep good, my stomach is in much better condition, my nervousness is entirely gone and I feel as good as new once more. I cheerfully recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone troubled with nervous disorders.

(Signed) "W. E. Bailey,"
Druggist T. J. Evans sells and guarantees Nerv-Worth.

RUSSELL LEGGE
VERY SUCCESSFUL
IN DETROIT, MICH.

Among the Newark men who are meeting with success in other cities, none has been more successful than Russell Legge, who is in charge of the art department of Matthew Kay Mann and company, engravers and advertisers.

Mr. Legge, himself an artist of superior ability, has the supervision of over twenty-five artists, and his work with this concern, one of the largest in Detroit, has met with merited reward. Recently in connection with his work, Mr. Legge and a friend organized the Rus-Leg Illustrative Service, which furnishes advertising cuts to illustrate newspaper advertising.

Mr. Legge is at the head of the concern and originates and draws all the illustrations, which cover every field of advertising. These possess unusual character and catch and retain the eye of the reader. The new company has already been very successful.

The daily output of the United States Mint at Philadelphia is estimated at $600,000.

Brain Work vs. Hand Work.

It used to be assumed that brain work was worth a good deal more than hand work. Good brain workers have been scarce in the past, and commanded high pay. In the earlier stages of history, physical strength and manual skill have usually been abundant and not well paid.

Today manual skill is commanding more money than it did, while brain workers find it difficult to secure corresponding advances. One fundamental error has been in assuming that no brains are required for good hand work. The skilled workmen knows better. It takes much mental ability to run a machine and handle inert matter efficiently, and get the largest production and the most useful product.

Mental capacity in executive and organizing and organizing directions is scarce and commands higher pay than ever. The man who can direct a force of work people so as to produce the largest and best results, gets more money than ever before.

But more common mental gifts are not very well paid. School teachers, ministers, newspaper workers, accountants, have not secured as many salary advances as railroad men, plumbers, carpenters, or brick layers. Wages of $5.00 and $6.00 or more a day are being earned in many factories affected by the war munition business. While this is exceptional, the skilled machinist earns more today than the average teacher. Factory and railroad and building work are laborious physical tasks, and take something out of a man that has to be paid for.

Modern civilization seems to train too many brain workers who fall short of the higher gifts. There are too many doctors and lawyers and bookkeepers who should be farmers, plumbers, locomotive engineers and tool makers.

Students Who Fail.

Considerable surprise is expressed over the number of students recently dropped from Annapolis naval academy. There were 82 who could not get 62.5 per cent in class room work. Some argue that the course is too severe. Others say the appointment system is wrong, admitting too many boys lacking the required capacity.

The dropping of a large number of students from higher institutions is, however, not unusual. A constant stream of the unfit is being cast out of the best colleges. It is done very quietly. The young people had come from their homes with many glorifications. They return after dark, "out of health." It's mental indolence, usually.

Colleges and technical and normal schools are in a position to make strict requirements. They are not subject to the limitations of the public schools.

puts that, he disputes the wisdom of the ages and us. What is led out? Just what God breathed into him, the spirit. How is the operation performed? Through the contact of the spirit with the environment. It is that which produces thought, impression, aspiration, purpose, interest. We have said this over and over again, and still our friend will not do us the honor of seeing it. He takes his own standpoint and argues against us from that.

We do not regard the intellect as a separate faculty, to be stuffed with arithmetic, grammar, geography, history, etc. We regard these as instrumentalities for drawing out the spirit. Our friend would make the textbook knowledge the end; we would make it the means. The trouble with the prevailing idea of education is that it regards the tools it works with as the finished product. We would make the teacher's personality, reading, music, art, nature, arithmetic, drawing, manual exercise, baseball, grammar, the lecture, the experiment, etc., mere instrumentalities for bringing the spirit into contact with the world. In this way the youth gets God's meaning of things in his heart, through which alone God speaks. This is character building. Cramping the alleged intellect is a shameful idea of education. Education is a creation of tendencies, and tendencies belong to the spirit.

The Specter of Pauperism.
Do you know that in the United States sixty-six out of every hundred people that die leave no estate whatever? Do you know that out of the remaining thirty-four only nine leave estates larger than $5,000 and that the average of the balance of twenty-five is a little less than $1,300? Do you know that at the age of sixty-five ninety-seven out of every hundred in America are partly or wholly dependent upon relatives, friends or the public for their daily bread, for their clothing and a roof under which to sleep? We all know that the one safeguard against pauperism by the countries of Europe has been thrift. France, Germany, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland have been the leaders in thrift. Do you realize that according to government statistics 98 per cent of the American people are living from day to day on their wages and that a loss of employment would mean pauperism for all but 2 per cent of us?—S. W. Straus in Leslie's.

Spirit of the Press

Dyes and Duties.

Congressman Hill blushes for shame because we are partly dependent upon foreign dyes, and he attributes the fact to low duties. But we have been maintaining a good rate of duty on sugar, primarily for the purpose of encouraging the beet sugar growers to make us independent of foreign countries, but instead of raising their own seed they have been importing it from Germany, and now that they can't do that they can't plant the usual area. The protective tariff has failed to make us independent of Germany in the matter of seed. Mr. Hill ought to do something about this.—Philadelphia Record.

Shoots as Far as One Can See.

As for the boggy of the 17-inch German naval gun that might shoot a few miles further than our 15-inch guns, it has been pointed out that as the 15-inch gun can reach anything in sight, it is probably quite as effective as a gun that could hit something out of sight if it was known where precisely the target was at any given moment, a condition not likely to obtain in naval warfare.—London Outlook.

Wireless Telegraphy.

On the eve of Washington's Birthday 25,000 amateur licensed wireless operators will give a demonstration of "radio preparedness." The interesting thing to most people will be the evidence given by the demonstration of the remarkable zeal shown by American youth in mastering this new form of communication. If 25,000 boys, or anywhere near that number, have learned wireless telegraphy in the few years in which it has been commercially available, it is apparent that "Young America" has lost none of its traditional progressiveness.—New York World.

Woman Suffrage in Manitoba.

By a unanimous vote the legislature of Manitoba, Canada, has passed an act giving women the right to vote. Only one member, Joseph Hemelin, Conservative, even spoke against the measure and his argument that "votes for women might cause domestic troubles at election time" did not prevent his voting for it. As soon as the royal assent is given the women of Manitoba will have the right to vote at all except Federal elections, and to sit in the legislature.

The fight for suffrage in Canada is being carried on by women of all classes through their various societies and organizations. Most of their work has been a direct appeal to the legislators—a method similar to that being used by the suffragists at Washington now—and there has been little or no popular agitation through a general campaign.—New York Independent.

A good story is recalled of ex-President Roosevelt's school days. He was once requested to recite a poem, beginning:
At midnight in his guarded tent,
The Turk lay dreaming of the hour
When Greece, her knee in supplication bent,
Should tremble at his power.

He only got as far as the third line, when he began to hesitate. Twice he repeated "Greece, her knee," and then stopped dead. The old professor beamed on him over his glasses, and then dryly remarked: "Greece her knee once more, Theodore. Perhaps she'll go easier then."

Little Edwin's Plan.

Little Edwin's weekly allowance was 1 cent each day, provided he took his codliver oil each morning regularly, and each Sunday the 7 cents which he saved during the week was put into the contribution box at Sunday school.

One Monday night Edwin rushed breathlessly in from school and climbing into the cupboard he got the bottle of much despised medicine and took it to his mother, saying: "Ma, I guess I'll take this week's physic in advance. Bill Brown an' I's goin' to the movies tonight an' I need the money."—Judge.

Mapmaking.

Mapmaking goes back to the earliest known time. It was a branch of the early picture writing practiced by savages. In Tahiti, for instance, the natives were able to make fairly good maps for the guidance of explorers. Maps with raised lines were in use in Peru before the conquest. The oldest known map is that of the Ethiopian gold mines, dating from the time of Setbos I., the father of Ramses II., long before the time of Aristagoras and his map, tablet, on which were inscribed the circuit of the earth and all the names of the known world.

England Now Known.

The statement quoted from the New York Times that "all reports that Colonel House is going abroad to reprimand ambassadors for alleged failings are made out of whole cloth" looks like a misprint, but it is really an Americanism conveying the idea of thoroughness. To say that a story is made out of whole cloth is to say (emphatically) that it is untrue. The phrase has been in use in America for at least thirty years, but is so unfamiliar over here as to be incomprehensible.—London Observer.

Aw, Cholly, don't you know, we've put up such a bally substitute for the dead old Mothol Tongue that one would hardly recognize it, what?

Alhambra Tonight and Tomorrow.

The party gown worn by Florence Dagmar, who plays the feminine lead in the photodramatic version of Mark Twain's celebrated story, "Pudd'nhead Wilson," and in which Theodore Roberts will be seen in the title role, was worn at one time by Miss Dagmar's grandmother and it has been one of the heirlooms of the Dagmar family ever since. It was only by great persuasion that the beautiful young actress could secure her mother's consent to wear it for the filming of the few scenes in which it appears. Finally, when Mrs. Dagmar was assured that absolutely no harm could come to the gown, the daughter was permitted to use it.

"Pudd'nhead Wilson" will be the attraction at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow.

Harry Lauder Matinee.

Harry Lauder will be seen at Auditorium matinee, only, Saturday, March 4th.

This in itself is an announcement of big importance, but it can be stated in addition that Harry will sing at least six new songs, of which he is both the author and composer, as well as some of the old favorites, which the audience will no doubt demand. He also brought together from Europe and America some of the best vaudeville acts, the majority of which have never been seen before in this country, and all this will mean that Lauder's engagement will be an event in this city long to be remembered.

FOUND NEW WAY TO INCREASE WEIGHT

THINKS MANY THIN PEOPLE GET NO MORE THAN HALF VALUE FROM THEIR MEALS

Roundup Underweight Men and Women Who Sought Missing Link Between Food Eating and Flesh Making Reported Gain From 10 to 25 Pounds.

If the sugar you put in your morning's coffee had not dissolved it would not have sweetened your coffee. If fifty per cent of the flesh, fat and tissue building nourishment of your meals is never assimilated by your blood but is continually leaving your body as waste, it is no wonder you stay thin, rundown, lack strength and are from ten to twenty-five pounds underweight.

Numerous tests seem to prove that many thin people stay thin because of defective assimilation of their food. They eat enough but get little or no good from it and seemingly have missed the link between food eating and flesh making.

In an effort to correct this condition there has been found a preparation called Sargol which taken at meals, helps to prepare the nourishing flesh-building properties of your food, so that the blood may more readily absorb them. Sargol's aim is to develop the flesh building values in your food, to improve your assimilation and to check the wastes of valuable nourishment that may now be going on in your system. Its section is both natural and harmless and its results can be judged from the gratifying reports many of its users who tell of weight increases ranging from ten to twenty-five pounds that followed its use. T. J. Evans, W. A. Erman, 33 North 3rd Street and many other leading druggists are offering Sargol to their customers guaranteeing to refund the full purchase price where satisfactory weight increase is not obtained from its use for sixty days as directed.

Sherlock.

The great detective, laying aside professional cares for the evening, is attending a dance. Introduced to a beautiful woman, he asks her to dance with him, and she graciously consents.

"You have been married several years," he murmurs after a couple rounds of the floor.

"How could you guess that?" she asks. "I am not wearing my wedding ring. Do I look like a married woman?"

"Not at all," he replies gallantly. "But I knew you were married the moment we started to dance. You at once began doing the leading."—Judge.

Somewhat Different.

"This question whether a word should have its adverbial or its adjective form seems to me to have little to do with the sense. Now, what is the difference between talking loud and talking loudly?"

"No difference," replied the pedagogical friend. "But look here. For a large fee you give legal advice freely, but you don't give it free. I think that will retain you for a while."

Sticking to His Post.

"Yes," the bell ringer replied, "but I have to stay with my car."—Magpie.

Olson Returned a Loser In Match With Bowser; Pomeroy Wrestler Makes Friends

Thor Olson, the middleweight grappler from Pomeroy, although he lost to Paul Bowser at the Music Hall last night in two straight falls, won for himself a host of friends among the fans in attendance. Olson is without a doubt the cleanest man that has ever stepped on the Music Hall mat.

He gave Bowser one of the hardest matches yet witnessed here, and while he did not gain the decision, he was on the verge several times of throwing the local man. The first fall went to Bowser by the aid of his famous scissor-lock on the arms in 47 1-2 minutes. The second only went 9 minutes and was won by the same hold.

The crowd was considerably smaller than that which was present last Thursday night, but there usually is a falling off in attendance in any line of sport following a championship affair. The men stepped on the mat at 9:19 and Referee Webber announced their weights as Bowser, 163; Olson, 158.

After sparring for a few minutes, the men went to the mat with Olson on top. The man from Pomeroy, who answers to the cognomen of the "Terrible Swede," started after Bowser in a manner that pleased the crowd. All throughout the bout Olson worked on Bowser with the toe hold, but Paul's wonderful ability to assimilate punishment, by this route, prevented the visitor from doing much damage.

Paul secured a number of dangerous holds on Olson, but the latter by his great "bridge" work stayed off a fall. He held a bridge, the best ever seen here, for several minutes at a time. Despite Bowser's picking up and throwing down tactics, the Pomeroy man retained his bridge.

Toward the latter part of the first session, Bowser worked around slowly for several minutes with a half-Nelson and then slipped the scissor-lock on Olson's arms and it was curtains for Thor.

The crowd applauded both men heartily at the conclusion of the first fall and many swarmed around Olson to shake his hand.

After a ten minutes intermission, hostilities were resumed. Bowser seemed determined to take no chances of losing the second fall and started after Olson with a rush. Just how fast and hard he worked is shown by the time in which it took him to secure the second fall, 9 minutes. Neither Olson nor Bowser appeared tired at the end of the bout and Olson was called on to make a speech.

"The best man won," he said. "I think Mr. Bowser is a wonderful man and do not see why he cannot defeat Joe Turner." Olson said he had met Turner at catch weights and thought that if Bowser would meet the champion at catch weights that he would be returned the winner. "I have no excuses to offer for my defeat, but I would like to wrestle Mr. Bowser again in the near future," he said.

The fans around the ring shouted that they would like to see him come back to Newark any time a match could be arranged. It was fully ten minutes after the bout before Olson freed himself from his new acquaintances and got to his dressing room.

His clean work and good disposition displayed throughout the bout gained his instant popularity. He said he was in the game because he enjoyed the sport and for this reason was not going to injure the game with dirty tactics. He is a representative citizen of Pomeroy, is a member of the Pomeroy Masonic lodge and a credit to the wrestling game.

The first disappointment suffered by the club staging the bouts came last night, when Jim White, the Coshocton grappler, was unable to go on as scheduled owing to an injury to his left hand. White was to have met Vance Wallace and John Heckelberg, two local huskies, in the semi-final, but Wednesday he fell on the ice cutting a large gash in the palm of his hand. He appeared at the ringside when Referee Webber made the announcement that he would not go on. He said he would like to meet the two boys here as soon as his hand healed.

Wallace and Heckelberg were put on for a thirty minute limit bout and it was thought that there would be a fall, but they carried it to a draw, neither getting a fall. Shortly after the men went to the center of the mat, Wallace by the aid of the hip-lock, threw Heckelberg to the mat with terrific force. The walls of the hall fairly shook when John's 186 pounds landed firmly on the mat. This was the third meeting between these boys that has ended in a draw and its a certainty that it will take more than thirty minutes to settle the supremacy between them.

The first bout between the Tiescher Brothers was a hummer as usual, but neither boy was able to win a fall. The match went ten minutes, and during this time, the fans were treated to some mighty clever work. These two youngsters are developing fast and on each appearance at the Music Hall uncork a bundle of new tricks and holds. Their bout last night was the hardest of any previous ones.

Chief of Police James Sheridan, Captain Hager and several patrolmen were among those at the ring side.

GAME PROTECTIVE ASSO. EXTENDED OFFICIAL FAMILY

At the annual meeting last night of the Licking County Fish and Game Protective Association, members voted to increase the size of the official family by naming three additional vice presidents and seven additional members of the board of directors. In filling these offices members of the association were selected from different parts of the county, giving the entire subdivision a fair representation on the board which does most of the active business through the year.

The officers elected last night were:

President—Edward N. Vanatta.
First Vice President—Dr. G. W. Bourne.
Second Vice President—Henry C. Cochran.
Third Vice President—Frank A. Wolsor.
Fourth Vice President—Frank S. Neighbor.
Secretary—E. V. Renfrew.
Treasurer—W. W. Gard.
Directors—Cary T. Bricker, B. M. East, George Conway, H. I. Holmes, Ben Robinson and Frank Bonham of Newark, Dr. Jacob Rohrer of Granville, C. M. McClelland of Utica, J. W. Nethers of Toboso and Chas. Wallace of Buckeye Lake.

All these officers were elected by acclamation.

The secretary in an informal report told of the work done by the association during the past year, including the planting of two shipments of fish a shipment of game birds, etc. He reported that the association now has more than 400 members, has affiliated with the League of Ohio Sportsmen and is in a prosperous condition. After paying all bills for the year, there is a balance in the bank of $9.

Informal talks by members relating to the more effectual protection of fish and game, proved to be interesting. Ben Robinson, resident game warden, told of some of the difficulties confronting officials seeking to enforce the game laws.

Fish poaching at Buckeye lake is one of the most serious problems with which the association and game wardens have to deal. Aside from the loss of fish from this cause, complaint was made that the custom of lowering the water level in the lake has been responsible for the slaughter of thousands of fine fish when a heavy freeze caught them in shallow waters of the marshes, or where they were carried through the flume gates and there allowed to die.

A vigorous campaign for new members and for the payment of dues by old members was launched last night and the association has started upon the year's work with prospects of having the most successful year since its organization two years ago.

No collections are made nor admittance charged. They are intended to teach lessons of patriotism, instruct and entertain. It would be well if every citizen of Newark would visit Lemert Post Room at least once a year and spend a few minutes looking at the interesting long row of cheap pictures of priceless men and stirring events that meant so much in the building of our Nation. Then there is an interesting relic room. And there is additional inspiration in the group of flags about the hall. They belong to the various patriotic orders of Newark, and these flags mutely represent all that our nation stands for. It is safe to say that there is no other Post room more concentrated nationalism than in any other building in Licking county. Go and see.

APPEAL

ISSUED FOR $225,000 FOR EQUIPMENT FOR RUSSIAN ARMY HOSPITAL

Signers of Appeal Say Impression of America's Unfriendliness to Russia Exists There.

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 18.—An appeal was issued here today by the American hospital and ambulance unit in Russia for $225,000 for the equipment of a hospital for the Russian army.

Among the signers to the appeal are Robert L. Bacon, Nicholas Murray Butler, Robert McCormick and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. The signers declare that an unfortunate impression exists in Russia that the people of the United States are unfriendly toward Russians. It is asserted that this impression is largely due to the substantial aid given to the wounded of all the other belligerent countries while "next to nothing has been given to Russia, the historical friend of the United States."

It is proposed to present the hospital under the patronage of the grand Duchess Tatiana, the daughter of the Czar. Dr. Edward H. Egbert and Dr. Philip Newton, who have been made brigadier generals by the Czar for their services in the American Red Cross unit in Russia, have consented to act as heads of the proposed hospital.

Drink Water To Avoid Sickness Says Authority

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stutty from cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

J. H. MILLER CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

(Special to the Advocate.)

New Lexington, O., Feb. 18.—Announcement is made here today that Representative William A. Hite of Thornville may be a candidate for State senator in the district comprising Perry, Muskingum, Licking and Delaware counties. There seems to be some doubt here as to whether Attorney J. H. Miller of Newark will again seek the Democratic nomination for State senator, and if Mr. Miller is not a candidate, Attorney Hite will surely seek the nomination.

The Advocate showed the foregoing message to Attorney J. H. Miller this morning. Mr. Miller expressed surprise that there was any doubt about his position. He said that while no newspaper announcement had as yet been made he has written many letters to friends over the district saying that he will be a candidate at the Democratic primary election. Mr. Miller said:

"While I think it is generally known over the district that I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State senator in this joint 15th-16th district, I am now making this public announcement. The fact that I ran much ahead of the state ticket two years ago, and the further fact that very generous encouragement has come to me from over the district to be a candidate again this year, induces me to do so. I shall greatly appreciate the support of all of my old friends."

REMARKABLE

EXAMPLES OF CYCLOPEAN ARCHITECTURE UNEARTHED BY RECENT EXCAVATION

In City of Tiryns Which is the Reputed Birthplace of the Legendary Hercules.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Athens, Feb. 18.—Some of the most important archeological discoveries of the past generation have just been made around the ancient city of Tiryns, which, according to one legend, was the birthplace of Hercules. The walls of the city are ascribed to the Cyclops, and earlier excavations there have unearthed some remarkable examples of Cyclopean architecture.

A number of workmen, digging at the Greek agricultural school some fifty yards beyond the walls of the ancient city, recently came upon some copper fragments evidently of very early date. The work was promptly stopped and a guard placed over the spot until Professor Arvanitopoulos could be called from Athens to direct the excavation.

On the arrival of the eminent Greek archaeologist, the work was conducted with the utmost care. The first discovery was a perfectly preserved cauldron, near which was a copper tripod in excellent state of preservation, bearing bas reliefs of animals and birds—a rare piece. In rapid order followed a huge copper plaque, three copper handles, three great swords, two copper brooches and some fragments of Mycenaean pottery.

The copper cauldron was full of earth, and Professor Arvanitopoulos sifted it out carefully. Here he made his great find—some golden beads evidently belonging to a valuable collar, some little gold plaques studded with jewels, some wires of gold and a large ring engraved to depict a round boat upon which are several passengers about to land, four men and women on shore are shown coming out of a doorway to meet the travelers. Professor Arvanitopoulos pronounced the ring most interesting and valuable from an archeological point of view, as well as intrinsically. There was also a gold wheel some five inches in diameter, with beads of amber as spokes. Professor Arvanitopoulos believes that this was used as a hair ornament, worn on the temples, in addition to the five hundred gold beads and gold wires upon which they may have been strung, together with a number of little gold plaques which may also belonged to the collar, four more gold rings were found simpler, however, than the engraved one; several pieces of conical money, also gold; a considerable assortment of beads of amber as well as of some softer matter and a tube bearing hieroglyphs. The chief treasure, however, was another ring of gold, large as a small egg, the engraving on the plaque of which represents a goddess seated on a throne, to whom four lions are bringing offerings, behind the goddess is a tree on the branches of which a bird is perched, and behind the tree, the horizon is indicated, with both sun and moon shown in the vicinity of an homeric architrave.

The copper cauldron with its precious contents was found near the ruins of some huts dating from 1200 B. C., and it is thought that the articles buried in the cauldron are of that period. Continuing his investigation in the same neighborhood, Professor Arvanitopoulos discovered a ruined temple of the sixth or fifth century B. C. as well as a tomb in the shape of a vault in which he is now engaged in making even more valuable discoveries than that of the copper cauldron and its treasure. In the presence of the King and Queen of Greece and the Princess Helen, Professor Arvanitopoulos deposited his golden treasures in the Museum at Athens.

DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS CAN BE REDUCED

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give is to get a prescription that many physicians are now prescribing.

Ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it dissolves varicose veins and causes them to disappear. It can always be secured at Evans' Drug Store.

MUTINY

AMONG HINDU TROOPS AGAINST
BRITISH OFFICERS REPORTED
BY BERLIN.

Overseas News Agency Tells of 12
Officers, Including a Major,
Being Killed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, Feb. 18.—(By wire from Sayville.)—A mutiny of Hindu troops in Egypt is reported by the Cologne Gazette as quoted by the Overseas News Agency. It is said an entire regiment mutinied, killing twelve officers, including a major, and that other Hindu troops went over to the mutineers. After a battle of two hours, it is said, the mutinous troops were routed.

The news agency statement follows: "The Cologne Gazette publishes a report received from reliable sources in Cairo, that strong opposition has developed among the Hindu troops to the British. A captain of the Australian troops named Brown on January 10 shot two Mohammedan servants who had made a mistake, the Gazette says. Two Hindus who witnessed the incident, killed the captain with a bayonet.

"The whole regiment then mutinied. A majority of the officers saved themselves by flight, but 12 of them, including the commander of the regiment and a major were killed.

"Other Hindu troops were sent to suppress the uprising but refused to fire on the mutineers, to whom part of them went over. After two hours of fighting, with Australian regiments, part of the mutineers fled into the desert. The others were killed or wounded.

"There have been other cases of mutiny but the British have prevented publication of the details."

The Cologne Volks Zeitung says that Major General Sir John Maxwell, commander of the British forces in Egypt has ordered the withdrawal of Mohammedan troops from the Suez canal, and their transportation to another war theater where they will not fight against other Mohammedans. It is said there have been frequent desertions among these troops.

"A Russian newspaper publishes sensational disclosures concerning illegal exemptions from military service," says the Overseas News Agency.

"The secretary of a recruiting committee at Petrograd and a large number of military agents have been arrested. They are charged with having accepted amounts ranging from 10,000 rubles up in each case."

SON ARRESTED FOR MURDER OF FATHER WHO BEAT MOTHER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Feb. 18.—Arthur McKenzie, 20, was under arrest here today on a charge of killing his father, John McKenzie, 49, in their home last night. According to the story told by the boy and his mother, McKenzie, senior, came home intoxicated and struck his wife, who called upon the boy for help. The son hit his father on the jaw, knocking him to the floor. Physicians were called and found the elder McKenzie dead, due to a broken neck, sustained when he fell.

Municipal Judge Silbert released young McKenzie when he was arraigned and acquitted him of the charge.

CATARRH CAUSED BY A GERM

Must Be Destroyed Before Catarrh
Itself Can Be Cured. Wonderful
Results from Breathing
Medicated Air.

Medicine that acts on the blood alone will never cure catarrh. And neither will the sprays, douches, lotions, creams and other temporary reliefs that so many catarrh victims make a habit of using. To cure Catarrh so it won't come back you must first drive from your body the millions of germs that are flourishing in the inner recesses of your nose and throat and are causing the disease.

There is a preparation used to do this called Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me). Hyomei is a germ killing vaporized air formed from the purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other healing and antiseptic ingredients. You breathe Hyomei through the mouth and nose by means of a little hard rubber inhaler which the druggists furnish with it. This medicated germicidal air penetrates into every fold and crevice of the mucous membrane of your nose and throat, kills the catarrh germs that lodge there, soothes, reduces and heals the swollen inflamed membranes, stops the discharge and opens up a truly wonderful way. It gives blessed relief in five minutes from catarrhal distress of every kind and if you make a practice of breathing Hyomei for a few minutes each day for just a few weeks, not only will all the symptoms of catarrh vanish but the disease itself will be a thing of the past. No one need try or buy Hyomei on pure faith. T. J. Evans and many other leading druggists in Newark, Ohio and vicinity sell it with the positive guarantee that it must cure catarrh or that the money paid for it will be refunded. Hyomei is very inexpensive and with this protecting guarantee behind your purchase there is absolutely no reason why any sufferer from Catarrh should not give it a fair trial.

Thousands of Koreans have applied for Russian citizenship, with a view of joining the Russian army.

Road to Health Is Through the Kidneys

No person alive is stronger than his kidneys. The minute the kidneys become disarranged or clogged with waste the warning is flashed throughout the entire system. The greater part of all sickness today can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

T. J. Evans, the popular druggist, can tell you of many well-known people in this city whom Solvax, the standard kidney remedy, has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit.

There are hundreds of people in Newark who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the Advocate that T. J. Evans is selling Solvax on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable kidney remedy is guaranteed to help the worst case of lazy, sluggish, or clogged-up kidneys, or the general headache, kinkybacked, played-out condition that afflicts people suffering with kidney trouble. Solvax does not simply relieve. It aims to cure.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in Newark today praising Solvax because it does what it is advertised to do. Not very long ago they were afflicted with all manner of sickness, uncomfortable pains and each day seemed to bring with it a new ache in some other part of their body. Since using Solvax they are once more bright and chipper and able to enjoy life at its fullest with no more fear of suffering.

No other kidney remedy has made such a large percentage of cures as Solvax. It is so large that T. J. Evans is perfectly safe in standing ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help. This is a good time to get well and you ought to take advantage of T. J. Evans offer.

REVIVAL TONIGHT; YOUNG PEOPLE TO HAVE PREFERENCE

The first visible result at the West End revival was seen last night when a young man went forward to make the confession. Evangelist MacDonald's sermon, "From Prison to Throne," was the story of Joseph whom Pothier imprisoned, but whom Pharaoh made ruler of Egypt. The story was told of Joseph's dream and his present of a coat of many colors which made his brothers jealous. From the pit to slavery first, then from chief man of Pothier's house to the dungeon; then from the prison to chief ruler where he saved his own brothers from famine, is the story of Joseph's life. Like Christ he was sold by his brethren. Jesus was sold for thirty pieces of silver, Joseph for twenty. Jesus was "tempted in all points yet without sin." So was Joseph tempted by Pothier's wife but yet without sin. Jesus was taken from judgment to bear the sins of others. So was Joseph from the lie of Pothier's wife. Jesus from the grave ascended to the right hand of the Father. Joseph was called from the dungeon to become ruler of Egypt next to the King. Each was sold and endured shame to save their brethren. Saved to serve was Joseph's mission the same as is our mission.

MacDonaldisms.
You are saved to serve all or not saved at all.

Lot, the covetous; Esau, the sensual; Ishmael, with an unfortunate birthright, all dropped out of history of God's people. Their descendants were enemies.

You are either for or against God's work. If the father is not a follower of Christ, the children may become enemies of the church. Cain built a city without God. Don't try to build your life or home that way.

Shop Meeting Sayings.
The religion that don't save your social life won't save your soul.

The religion that won't make your home happier needs a new brand.

The happiest man in the world is the truest Christian.
If we look after the body's welfare for health sake why not look after the soul's welfare for heaven's sake.

We have policemen and firemen to save our bodies from danger, why not have more Christians risking their lives to save our soul from eternal death.

Announcements.

PEN SENTENCE FOR MOVIE MANAGER; USED DYNAMITE

Wooster, Feb. 18.—John B. McCormick, moving picture show proprietor, who, following his arrest last night, confessed he had twice dynamited the Wallace Theatre, a rival picture theatre, got short shrift in court yesterday, being sentenced late yesterday by Judge L. R. Critchfield to serve from five to ten years in the Ohio penitentiary. McCormick yesterday morning was indicted on five counts by the grand jury. He pleaded guilty and waived all legal delay, the quick work of the court establishing a new record here.

Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once.

He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WERE GUESTS OF OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM TODAY

Election of Officers and a Theatre Party Tonight Will be Closing Feature of Meeting.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Feb. 18.—Newspaper editors attending the meeting of the Buckeye Press Association were guests today of Ohio State University's school of Journalism, who director, Professor Joseph S. Myers former Pittsburgh editor, told them the school hopes eventually to establish an extension department to assist editors over the state.

He criticized publishers for emphasizing unduly business management of newspapers and giving too little attention to editorial proficiency.

The visiting editors were shown the campus printing plant and offices in which journalism students publish a daily newspaper, the Lantern. This is the laboratory when they practice what they are taught in class work, it was explained.

Prof. Myers suggested that the Buckeye Press Association appoint an official critic to examine closely the papers published by the members and to report his observations at the next meeting. "You would get constructive criticism which would improve your papers noticeably," he said. "You would then observe bad grammar and bad spelling, faulty heads, foolish judgment in the display of news, selfish or short-sighted editorial policies. Editors are careless rather than stubborn. If they had more vanity, they would hold the mirror up to themselves."

Election of officers and a theatre party tonight were the closing features of the meeting.

WOULDEST LIKE TO WEAR THIS GOWN IN A SNOWSTORM? MISS MAYO DID IT

EDNA MAYO in "THE STRANGE CASE OF MARY PAGE"

Edna Mayo, co-star with Henry Walthall in the Essanay series, "The Strange Case of Mary Page," doesn't believe in marriage.

Hold on! Don't jump at conclusions.

She means she believes it will be best for all parties concerned or unconcerned if she avoids the altar as assiduously as she avoids the villain in "The Strange Case of Mary Page."

She cares not what course others may take. She's never going to fall in love.

Of course, confidentially, such a course is going to end with her plans all wrecked. It's just that sort of a person who does marry, usually suddenly as a result of an impetuous, but perpetual and overwhelming

love. But listen, nevertheless, to Miss Mayo's views:

"I never want to be bossed," she says, "and I've noticed that all husbands are bossy. I want to be able to earn my own money, to be economically independent, and to spend it when I choose."

"Most husbands squander all the money they want to and then force their wives to economize. They demand constant attention and give none. If I were married I would want to be a real wife, and live in a real home. Therefore, I couldn't continue in moving pictures and I don't believe the man lives that I could love more than I do the independent life of an actress."

"The Strange Case of Mary Page" will be shown at the Grand and the story will appear in the Advocate next month.

In Milady's Boudoir

Noses pug, noses piquant, noses retroussé, noses Grecian, and noses ugly are all seen every day in the great host of traveling humans. We can do little to change the shape of our noses, but we can make them beautiful to a great extent, no matter what style we are blessed or tortured with.

Many women complain because their noses are red, but it is not the fault of her nose; it is her diet. An upset stomach will encourage a rosy hue to the nose quicker than anything else. Watch what you eat and how you eat it, and your complexion will take care of itself.

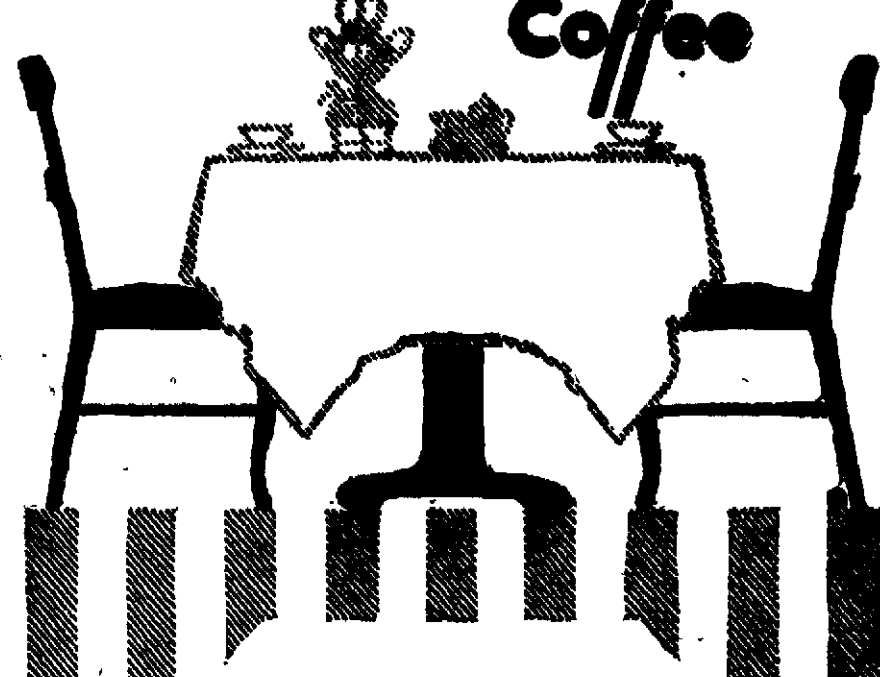

If the nose is inclined to have large pores the trouble can be easily overcome by the daily application of diluted peroxide of hydrogen, dabbed on with a swab of cotton wrapped around an orange wood stick. This will tend to bleach the skin and reduce the size of the pores.

The nose is the most unfortunate feature of the face to become sunburned in the summer, and chapped in the winter and it is well to dab it nightly with cold cream or camphor ice.

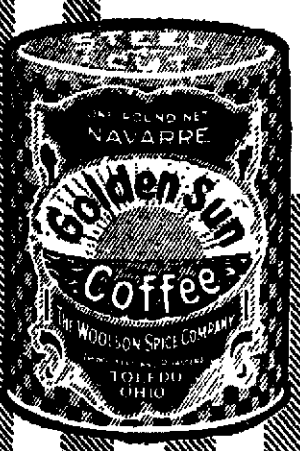

A nose inclined to be pink in the least degree, never looks attractive with an evening gown. So beware of the foes of the nose; the diet, the sun and the bleak north winds.

There is no age limit for generals in the British army, the only standard being efficiency.

Your Boys and Girls

The room chosen for the children's nursery should have as much sun as possible and provide for ample ventilation, arranging one window anyway with the familiar board at the bottom, so that the sash may be raised to admit a passage of fresh air between the upper and lower panes, even when the window is completely closed to all intents and purposes.

A washable, varnished paper, or walls of washable paint, should be provided. This is really of importance. The walls should be wiped over with a sponge wrung out in hot water to which a little ammonia has been added, the children being turned out of their room on that day, so as to ensure plenty of time for cleaning and to prevent any dampness while the small occupants are present. The floor should be covered with something washable and warm, and for this cork carpet immediately suggest itself, and curtains should be dispensed with, although pretty ones of linen or case-ment cloth drawn on winter evenings, lend a certain cheerfulness to the room and are quite easy to keep clean.

Every Family Needs this Splendid Remedy

Compound of Simple Laxative Herbs
Recommended for Constipation.

When a remedy has stood the test of critical analysis and strong competition for over a quarter of a century and establishes itself as the indispensable household remedy in thousands of homes, it is pretty good evidence of its efficacy.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been on the market since 1889, its use being gradually extended until now it is generally regarded by druggists as the staple family laxative. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs, gentle in its action and positive in effect. It costs only fifty cents a bottle and can be purchased in drug stores everywhere.

Mr. Frank Klima, of 2309 Ashland Ave., Baltimore, Md., wrote Dr. Caldwell recently that he had tried about everything without being helped until he got a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he considers the greatest known remedy for indigestion, constipation and stomach troubles.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist and keep it in the house. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

FREE SUGAR

SCHEDULE MEANING LOSS OF $40,000,000 REVENUE, WILL BE REPEALED.

Caucus of Democrats Decide by Vote of 84 to 20 that such action is Necessary.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Proposed repeal of the free sugar clause of the Underwood tariff law before May 1, the date on which the provision would become effective with a resultant actual loss of $40,000,000 of revenue, virtually was assured today as a result of the action of the house democratic caucus last night.

The proposed legislation was decided by a vote of 84 to 20, after a vigorous fight against it led by representative Keating of Colorado, who denounced the action as a repudiation of party doctrine. Ten Democrats declined, because of other pledges or convictions to be bound by the contract decision.

Other leaders were preparing today to carry out the caucus action through a bill prepared by Majority Leader Kitchin, which will be one way of meeting the expense of national defense. Other means are through the income tax and a tax on special articles and war munitions.

Making the Best of It.

"Ex-Congressman Flubdub wants a little write up," remarked the magazine publisher. "What shall we say about him?"

"What did he ever do?"

"Nothing."

"Say he upheld the best tradition of Congress."—Pittsburgh Post.

Luck.

"There is no such thing as luck," remarked the severely practical person. "You must depend on your own intelligence."

THE VALUE OF TRUTH

Truth in business is just as important as truth in every-day life; truth creates confidence, establishes good-will and builds a reliability that will not be wrecked by the storms of competition.

Through three generations people have learned to place reliance on the advertised words of Scott's Emulsion, because they are untarnished, unexaggerated truths about a household remedy of real and actual worth.

The popularity of Scott's Emulsion is increasing as intelligence advances, because in these days of adulterations it continues to guarantee pure cod liver oil medicinally perfected with glycerine and hypodermics to build strength, improve the blood and strengthen the lungs. It is free from alcohol or opiates—a wholesome food-tonic, truthfully advertised.

AVOID ST. VITUS' DANCE

Physicians are baffled by St. Vitus' dance because it is a nervous disease in which they can find nothing actually wrong with the nervous system.

Long before the child becomes awkward and begins dropping things there is a period in which the appetite is fickle and the patient is tired and listless. The jerking movements characteristic of the disease come much later.

In the early stages a good tonic for the blood and nerves will go far toward preventing the development of the disease. But the tonic must be free from alcohol and opiates for these make the nervous condition worse. When your child appears listless, prefers to sit and read rather than go out and play and requires entirely too much time to get his or her lessons, give a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cannot do harm, the system is sure to be benefited and you may avoid serious trouble.

These pills build up the blood, nourish the starved nerves and improve the general health. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. ## Indoor Life Makes Fat

Try Oil of Korein to Keep Weight Down, or to Reduce Superfluous Fat.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who is satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to W. A. Erman, Evans Drug Store or a good druggist and get a box of oil of korein capsules, and take one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Improved digestion and a return to the old energy; footsteps become lighter and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears. Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

Germans Charged
With Instigating
Native Rebellion

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, Feb. 18.—The Paris Journal correspondent at Tananarivo says that German agents financed and otherwise encouraged a native plot to overthrow the government of Madagascar last December.

The seat of the conspiracy was at Fianarantsoa, and it was planned to poison the French officers and soldiers on New Year's eve, and either gain the native troops to the cause of the conspiracy or obtain from them their military weapons. The white officials and colonists were then to have been massacred. The report adds that documents discovered at the German consulate show that plans were made for fomenting an insurrection even before the war.

According to French statistics, only one-fourth of the aviation accidents are due to defects in aeroplanes.

One of the best "hits" of the Elks minstrels is now on sale in our Victrola Department. Come in and hear it.

The new "mother" song is sure to reach your heart

"Mother, a Word that Means the World to Me," is not a composition of pretentious literary or musical standards. It is just a simple outpouring of popular feeling touching the heartstrings of sentiment, with a melody that swings to the warmth and fervor of the emotion. And as it is sung by Henry Burr it pictures in your mind a dear mother somewhere—the best mother that ever lived.

On the reverse side of this record, Albert Campbell joins Mr. Burr in a splendid duet of a sentimental ballad, "The Wedding of the Sunshine and the Rose."

Frances Cowells of San Francisco, holder of five swimming records, is on her way to Honolulu, where she will try conclusions with the pick of Hawaiian feminine talent in the Mid-Pacific Swim Carnival. In the fifty-yard back stroke she has established the smart figures of 46 seconds; in the fifty-yard dash she has breasted the waves in 0:33 2-5; in the century she claims a record of 1:16 4-5, while in the furlong her accomplishment was no less than 3:20. The last of the five is the 350-yard swim, which she negotiated in 5:47 1-5.

BRANDEIS HEARING
POSTPONED TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 18.—No witnesses were ready to be heard today before the senate judiciary subcommittee concerning the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the supreme court and today's hearing was abandoned.

At a new executive session of the committee today a request by Mr. Fox that Mark G. Sullivan, editor of Collier's Weekly be called to testify on Moorfield Storey's testimony that Colliers paid Mr. Brandeis for his appearance in the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry was held in abeyance to give Mr. Fox and G. W. Anderson, who represents the committee an opportunity to agree if possible on a statement which would obviate the necessity of calling Sullivan.

New Home Treatment
for Banishing Hairs

(Beauty Topics.) With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in its original package. (Adv.)

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Sympathy with higher prices at Liverpool brought about an advance today in the wheat market here, it being reported that offerings in Great Britain were exceeding. Word was at hand also that the government of Argentina was advising farmers to hold their wheat, and was urging that Europe must buy at any price.

cost. Complaints regarding the condition of the domestic winter crop tended further to give an advantage to the bulls. After opening a shade off to 1 1/2 up the market recovered a little, but then rose all around to well above yesterday's finish. Initial prices for May were 1.29 to 1.29 1/2, and for July 1.24
to 1.24 1/2.
After the first hour a bearish reaction took place, influenced by increased wheat receipts northwest. Announcement of liberal export sales
through railroads the market especially near the end of the session. Prices
closed firm. @ 1.10 to 1.10 1/2, net
higher with May 1.29 1/2 and July 1.24 1/2 @ 1.24.
Corn hardened with wheat. At first,
however, the market was easy, owing to favorable weather. The opening which ranged from a shade to 1/4 c
lower, was followed by a moderate upturn.
Lower corn quotations were touched
later, but the dip was only of a transient sort. The close was unsettled at 1/4 c to 3/4 c net advance.
Oats had the same action as corn.
Trade was mainly of a local character.
Some strength developed in provisions, despite lower prices on hogs.
There seemed to be an absence of pressure on the selling side.
The market for realizing by packers and thus checked to a considerable extent any further advance.

Wall Street
(Associated Press Telegrams)
New York, Feb. 18.—More steady-ness was shown at the outset of today's trading than at any recent session, rains predominating in most parts of the active list. Butte and Superior and American Zinc, yesterday's strong features, rose 1 1/2 each to new records, and copper particularly Anaconda and Utah were in demand
at fractional advances. United States
Steel, Crucible Steel, Picked Steel Car
Steel, Industrial Alcohol and Mexican Petroleum rose appreciably over yesterday's final quotations, but rails were irregular. Much of this advance was forfeited before the end of the half hour,
market developing a reactionary trend.
The reversal of the first hour was precipitated by the heaviness of motor shares. Studebaker, Baldwin Locomotive, New York Air Brake and petroleum in which recessions extended from 1 1/2 to 3 points. General Motors being the chief sufferer. Meanwhile coppers made further upward progress
and rails, under lead of Reading, manifested a better tendency. Marine Precision Tobacco also rose 1 to 3 1/2 points.
Following its usual course, the market
became dull with the approach of midday and prices were again shaded on further offerings of war issues and specialties.

Bonds were steady.
The market was at its best in the final hour, prices at that time showing a noble but substantial gains.
The closing was strong.
The week's early dealings were regained today, metal shares leading a general advance.
The oldest prison guard in point of service in the world is Henry Wilkinson,
who has been a keeper at the Eastern Penitentiary in Philadelphia.
Over 100,000 men have left this country
to join the colors of the belligerents.
New Zealand has 2,000,000 sheep.

American manufacturers of musical instruments, with an annual output valued at about $100,000-000, export only $300,000 worth annually to foreign countries. American pianos are chiefly exported to Canada, where they constitute about 90 per cent of the total imports of that class, to Great Britain, for re-shipment to other parts of the world
and to Central and South America.
Our player pianos are sent in about equal numbers to Australia, England, Italy and Argentina, and in much larger quantities to Canada.

The first cucumbers of the season

were cut today at the Weiant green-

were cut April 1, but the new im-

Powerful Searchlight.

A nitrogen lamp of 450 watts,

with a powerful reflector, has been installed in the Gleichauf show window in West Main street and every light into the heavens. A part of the light is reflected on the Advocate

building, showing the American flag

floating to the breeze.

The Pastime club which operates a tion would stand the strain of the big jitney bus. Mr. Simpson traveled over the street in the bus and declared that he thought there was no need of anxiety. He said his company's work was guaranteed for five years and that the use of the jitney bus would not deter them

from carrying out that feature of the contract should it be awarded to the Federal company.

Chimney Burned Out.

Burning soot in a chimney at the home of Mrs. Katherine Flohr, 591
